Supporting Graduates, Supporting Education, Supporting Industry

The Process

Hotelgraduates.com develops relationships throughout the world to be able to facilitate the recruitment needs of this international industry. We are equally committed to providing a quality and valuable service to the Industry, Education Providers and their Graduates.

Via our website, Graduates are able to register online to create their own profile and resume which will then be accessible to industry members worldwide.

Industry can search the Graduate profiles and be able to commence the recruitment process via Hotelgraduates.com.

Graduates will also be able to access information about corporate training programmes, remain in touch with industry happenings and fellow classmates! By streamlining the Graduates entry into the Industry, we are keeping them informed and in control of their own career.

Hospitality Schools will be able to create their own profile via the Hotelgraduates.com website to track where Graduates are and promote opportunities for further education. It will be a useful tool for Career Advisors etc. wanting to provide the best opportunities for current students and Graduates.

By meeting the needs of all three parties, we are providing a valuable networking tool for the Industry, Education Providers and Graduates.

Our aim is to create longevity in the Industry, retaining the valuable talent that is being produced by Hospitality Schools today.
